

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

NOTICE.

In calling the attention of collectors, librarians, and scholars to the contents of this Catalogue, it may be stated, that the collection of books therein described is believed to be the most valuable ever offered at public sale in Boston, if not in the United States.

The collection embraces the most costly works in many departments of science, literature and art. It was made during the last fifty years, without regard to expense; and comprises the finest editions that could be obtained during that period, in the range of topics sought to be illustrated. The books were chiefly selected in London by one, who, by his knowledge and taste, was fully competent to judge of their value. Many of the works are not only rich and costly, but have become exceedingly rare, and hence are much sought after by book-collectors.

Although the greater portion of the books are in the English language, yet the Catalogue includes the works of the best foreign authors, and the finest editions of the Greek and Roman Classics. Of standard writings, there are in some instances many editions. The range of subjects, the choice of editions, the artistic value of the illustrated works, the quality of the bindings, are such as would be looked for in the library of a gentleman of ample means, high culture, and pure literary taste.

Many of the works are in editions de luxe. There are many volumes of the choicest engravings, procured when they were first published, and, of course, the finest impressions. Most of the engravings are in fine bindings, and in faultless condition, the volumes having been carefully protected in thick wadded jackets, or wrappers.

First editions of celebrated authors, some very rare, books on vellum, etc., will be found scattered through the Catalogue, to which the attention of collectors and lovers of rare books is invited.

The books are generally in good order, and the bindings are chiefly in calf, morocco and russia. The collection has been in India, and, as a consequence, some of the volumes are slightly worm-eaten. Few, however, have been injured to such an extent as to require notice in the Catalogue. It is seldom that so large a number of serial works, in perfect sets, are found in one collection.

The Catalogue has been prepared by Prof. Joseph William Jenks, of Boston, and will, it is hoped, be found generally accurate.

The valuable, choice and rare books are so numerous that it is not deemed necessary to do more than call the attention of collectors to the Catalogue itself. However, a few leading titles are presented to show the general character of the collection. Hearne's and Grose's Antiquities; Book of St. Albans; Palace of Pleasure; Heliconia; Mirror for Magistrates; Hall's and Fabyan's Chronicles; Hakluyt, 5 vols., folio; Purchas, 5 vols., folio; Vetusta Monumenta, 4 vols., folio; Manuscrits de la Bibliotheque du Roi, 12 vols., 4to; Dibdin's and Brydges's Bibliographical Works; Retrospective Review, 18 vols.; Musee des Antiques, 3 vols., folio; Murphy's Arabian Antiquities, folio; Claude's Liber Studiorum; Britton's Architectural Works, 6 vols.; Stuart's Athens, 8 vols., folio; Gallerie du Musee de France, 10 vols., 4to; The Florence Gallery, 4 vols., folio; The Houghton Collection, 2 vols., folio; Saracenic and Norman Remains; Monuments of Nineveh; Musee Francaise, 4 vols., folio; Il Vaticano, 8 vols., folio; Il Museo Clementino, 7 vols., folio; Il Museo Chiaramonti, 3 vols., folio; Tresor de Numismatique, 251 parts; Journal Asiatique, 66 vols.; Biographie Universelle, 84 vols.; Early English Poetry, and the Drama; Bagster's fine reprints and Polyglots of the Scriptures; Pickering's Aldine Poets, reprints and other publications; Encyclopædias, Lexicons, Dictionaries, and works on Natural History, Antiquities, etc.

Brunet describes this work as consisting of 252 livraisons. As here presented, it consists of 251 livraisons, Brunet describes Série 4 as containing 21 livraisons, but that series in this collection contains only 20 livraisons, and appears to be complete. The error, it is probable, rests with Brunet, and a careful examination leads to the conclusion that the work here offered for sale contains all that was ever published, and is complete. Bohn's account of the livraisons in detail, differs from Brunet's.

"Cet important ouvrage a été publié en 252 livraisons. Il est divisé en trois parties, savoir: Monumens antiques; Monumens du moyen âge et de l'histoire moderne; Monumens de l'histoire contemporaine. Le prix de chaque livraison était de 5 francs. Pap. de Chine (à 12 exemplaires), 10 francs."—Brunet.

Bohn speaks of the series as "fine and interesting," and gives the publishing price of 211 parts, at 52l. 15s.; reduced afterwards to 15l. The "Collas process," by which these plates are engraved, is a wonderful triumph of art, and gives, with the utmost artistic and geometric exactness, a perfect facsimile of the medal or coin. This work is, perhaps, the finest, certainly the most extensive to which this art has been applied.

"The effect of relief produced merely by this remarkable style of engraving is so magical, that at first sight, it is difficult, without touching, to believe that the surface is not raised by embossing. The discovery of this process (which is performed by machinery) is hailed as an epoch in the progress of the Art. See the Athenæum, October 1st, 1837."—Bohn.
